

MeetMarket Regulations

Eligibility

- MeetMarket is open to documentary filmmakers from Australia, New Zealand and Asia. No prior credits are necessary.
- Projects entered may be at any stage of development, production or post-production.
- Interactive factual/documentary such as web-based, cross-platform and convergent media projects are also eligible and encouraged to apply.
- Projects must have international appeal and take a fresh approach to either the content, the execution of the idea or both.
- Projects may take any form or specialist focus eg feature documentaries, television, series or specialist genres. Natural history, science and arts projects are very welcome.
- Projects do not need to have financing already in place.

Terms & Conditions

- There is no entry fee to apply.
- The organisers accept no liability in the event that its publications reproduce inaccuracies in submitted materials.
- Applicants must submit all of the requested materials at time of entry for their projects to be considered. Successfully selected projects will have an opportunity to update their materials before projects are finally made available to buyers.
- Up to 25 projects will be selected from all submitted projects. Of the projects selected, 20 slots will be allocated to Australian documentary filmmakers and 5 slots will be allocated to Asian documentary filmmakers.
- Scheduling of the meetings at MeetMarket is at the discretion of the organisers.
- If your application to MeetMarket is successful, you agree to attend AIDC 2010 for the full duration of MeetMarket (23-26 February 2010). Failure to be able to do so may result in your project being withdrawn.
- Producers of successful projects will be notified on 18 December 2009. If your application to MeetMarket is successful, the producer and director are eligible to register for the conference at the special Early Bird discounted rate (outside of its published deadline) to represent the project and attend AIDC 2010. Any additional team members participating in MeetMarket must register for AIDC 2010 at the standard registration rates. If you do not register for AIDC 2010 by 4 January 2010, you will not be permitted to participate in the MeetMarket.
- All successful applicants are required to participate in the pitch preparation session to be held on 23 February 2010.
- Entry and participation of projects implies unconditional acceptance of the regulations.
- The selection committee decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into regarding the outcome. Feedback will not be given to unsuccessful applicants.
- The organisers reserve the right to change the guidelines or processes at any time and without notification.
- The organisers of MeetMarket will not recoup costs associated with any component of this program nor take rights or liabilities in projects selected.
